October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

October, National Domestic Violence Awareness month, is a time for reflection and for increasing awareness about the high rate of intimate partner and familial violence that occurs in the U.S. and around the world

According to the Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence, there are over 100,000 reports of domestic abuse each year in PA. Many more incidents go unreported. These individuals are victimized through physical, sexual and emotional abuse, isolation, intimidation, and/or threats to children. They live in every community, in all neighborhoods, and attend places of worship. Their children go to school with your children. In 2007/2008 over 3,000 of these victims sought out and received help from the Domestic Violence Center of Chester County. These were the ones who were brave enough to pick up the telephone. The Domestic Violence Center of Chester County has an office located at the Neighborhood Services Center (610-932-8557, ext. 209).

Oxford Presbyterian Worship in the Park and Church Picnic Is October 16!!!

This year, we will be having our church picnic and Sunday worship at Nottingham Park in Pavilion 7!! Join us for Worship at 11:00a, followed by our picnic.

Please bring a dish to share and lawn chairs.
8:15a Worship will be in the church as usual.

Our Vision

Oxford Presbyterian Church is a family of Christians dedicated to sharing the unconditional love of Jesus Christ with the local and world communities.

Apple Festival
Postponed Due to Rain!
Our Apple Festival was postponed until October 15th

10:00a-4:00p

Our denomination has a Constitution that consists of two parts. The first part is the Book of Confessions which contains the statements of faith that we have agreed are helpful in defining our faith. Part Two is the Book of Order which, in turn, is composed of three parts: the Directory for Worship provides guidelines for arranging services and gives the theological reasoning behind those guidelines; the Rules of Discipline lays out the proper procedures for graciously correcting errors in action in the church; the Form of Government establishes the form and function of the various structures of our denomination, from the local congregation and its members and leaders, to the general assembly and its offices and officers. The Form of Government acts in some ways like our U.S. Constitution, and in some ways like a corporate Manual of Operations.

I give you all this because we have just this year adopted a new Form of Government for the PC(USA). In the evaluation process, it was referred to as “nFOG”, hence my title for this reflection. For the past 28 years, since our denomination was formed by the re-uniting of the denominations separated since the Civil War, our Form of Government was gradually tweaked year after year, adding this phrase or revising that section.

But the new Form of Government was completely re-written in an attempt to make it more of a “constituting” document and less of a “manual.” Here is the first paragraph of the section called “The Foundations of Presbyterian Polity.”

“F-1.01 GOD’S MISSION

The good news of the Gospel is that the triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—creates, redeems, sustains, rules, and transforms all things and all people. This one living God, the Scriptures say, liberated the people of Israel from oppression and covenanted to be their God. By the power of the Spirit, this one living God is incarnate in Jesus Christ, who came to live in the world, die for the world, and be raised again to new life. The Gospel of Jesus Christ announces the nearness of God’s kingdom, bringing good news to all who are impoverished, sight to all who are blind, freedom to all who are oppressed, and proclaiming the Lord’s favor upon all creation.

The mission of God in Christ gives shape and substance to the life and work of the Church. In Christ, the Church participates in God’s mission for the transformation of creation and humanity by proclaiming to all people the good news of God’s love, offering to all people the grace of God at font and table, and calling all people to discipleship in Christ. Human beings have no higher goal in life than to glorify and enjoy God now and forever, living in covenant fellowship with God and participating in God’s mission.”

That’s what the church is all about. In a phrase borrowed from the first question of the Westminster Shorter Catechism, we are here as disciples to “glorify and enjoy God now and forever.” That is our purpose and mission in the church. It is my goal in the coming year to help us all to live out that joyful glorification of God as a family of faith.

See you in church!

PEACE,

ministry doesn't particularly appeal to me—I still want to make sure that my friends will be able to do what they love to do for our church and our Lord. We live together as a family of faith, and we support each other day by day. We share our journeys toward ever-deepening relationship with God and we are renewed in our hearts through Our Shared Mission.

This year's stewardship theme emphasizes the many ways that we serve the Gospel through our ministries. No one does everything in the church. Some are drawn to teaching in Sunday School, others like to sing in the choir, and others give of themselves in our kitchen. Each of us seeks, through our unique and valuable gifts, to "share the unconditional love of Jesus Christ." This is Our Shared Mission.

Proportional Giving is a special way of establishing a new relationship with God through stewardship. We make commitments with our financial resources all the time through various contractual obligations—house payment, car payment, etc. Those are all commitments to pay specific amounts regularly.

When we give to the ministries of the church, it is more than just putting something in the plate each week as part of my own journey of faith. It is supporting our friends in their personal journey and their personal dedication. We've seen how much effort Donna gives to the kids in her Sunday School class. We know how dedicated Jackie is to our kitchen. We've seen the look of pride on our children's faces as they bring the Light of Christ in at the beginning of worship. We love Dorothea's and Vivian's commitment to peace-making. We've tasted Leon's awesome rice pudding! These varied passions and common purpose, these gifts and skills, are the reason we serve together as a congregation.

Church stewardship is different. We don't have contracts with the church for payment. Instead, we encourage everyone to consider their commitment to the church to be a covenant with God, a covenant based on God's grace in our lives. We ask, "How has God blessed my life?...How can I respond to those blessings?" A proportion of those blessings has always been the biblical understanding of our response to God. The materials in your information packet will help you with proportional giving. We hope you will use these tools with prayer and thanksgiving.

In the next few days, Fall Financial Campaign callers will set up a time to meet with you to bring you information about all of our ministries and ask you for your commitment for 2012. Please remember Our Shared Mission and prayerfully consider your response to God's grace.

The History of the O.P.C. Library

by Bonnie MacKrell

The Oxford Presbyterian Church was a raging inferno in 1989, and while the church was on fire, the Oxford Fire Company was salvaging books from the church library. The salvaged, smoke darkened and dusty books remained in the attic of the newly rebuilt church for nearly ten years.

Then in 1998, everything changed for the OPC Library: My stepfather died. How did a man who never stepped foot in the Oxford Presbyterian Church affect the library? Well, my stepfather left my sister and me his modest estate. In determining how to best utilize the inheritance tithe we tried to consider several factors. How could this money be best used to glorify GOD, and how can it have the most impact on the most people. We weren't talking about a huge sum of money, but enough that it kept us up at night.

As if by divine intervention my sister, Beverly Mackey, and I came upon the same revelation. The church library could be rebuilt with the money we had allotted for our tithe. We reasoned that our stepfather lived his life as a non-believer (up until a month before he died). We also reasoned that he was illiterate having only an eighth grade education. He had quit school to join the service and could neither read nor write. He never learned either. He misspelled my name from the time he and my mother married. He was an abuser. At the hands of my stepfather my sister and I were abused from the time we were 12 until we moved out of the house at 17.

Beverly and I concluded that there was only one option. Take the money that my stepfather left us and rebuild the library. That would glorify GOD! Once the plan was in place and the room selected for the library, we got busy. Our family rolled paint, ordered shelves and with some volunteers we sifted through the stacks of books that were so carefully released from the fires ravages. They were sad looking books. They had been lovingly placed there from parishioners of long ago. They survived the fire. They survived a lengthy storage from an attic space and now they were home. With the addition of the many new Christian books we purchased, which included additions on adoption, abuse, child rearing and well known current authors, the old books found their way onto the new shelves. The library flourished with its use. As new donations of books came in, the old ones made their way to the trash. No one wanted to read the old dusty binds. They were dirty. They served their purpose. Their time was up. Every now and then you may look to the bottom rows of the library shelves and see one what missed the tossing. You will recognize it. The pages will be yellowed. They will be blacked. If you can, remove it and throw it away. If not, reflect on it and remember its past.

The photos on the wall were donated by Beverly Mackey. She is among other things, a very good photographer.

The conference table was a gift from the Apple Festival proceeds the fall of 1998. Bruce Hastings had a hand in the selection and delivery of the book shelves and conference table. Donations of books continue to come in and they just appear, begging for someone to place them on the shelves.

Over the twelve years I was the caretaker of the Oxford Presbyterian Library, I spent many hours feeling the presence of GOD in that room. There is no place on earth that I feel his presence more. He is there on the shelves, on the table, on the walls. Visit the library yourself. Feel his presence. He has prevailed over evil in that room.

Presbyterian Women's Baby Layette Mission

The Baby Layette Mission will begin on September 18th and run through October 23rd.

Here is a list of items needed for each layette:

- 6 cloth diapers and 2 diaper pins
- 2 undershirts size 3 to 6 months. Please do not send onsies – they are not acceptable
- 2 nightgowns or sleepers – sizes 0-3 months or 3 to 6 months.
- 2 baby washcloths
- 2 receiving blankets or one receiving blanket and one knitted or crocheted blanket (30x40)
- 1 knitted or crocheted baby sweater or store bought hooded sweatshirt (3 to 6 months)

Please remember that onsies are not acceptable by Church World Service. The only places I have found undershirts are the Amish dry goods store on Jackson School Rd and Goods Department Store in Quarryville.

Won't you be a busy bee and help to make this mission a big success?

About the Peacemaking Offering

The Peacemaking Offering was created in 1980 to support the efforts of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to live out a deeper commitment to peacemaking as part of our faithfulness to God.

Each congregation is encouraged to retain 25 percent of the Offering it receives to use for local ministries of peacemaking within the church and its community. Twenty-five percent is used by presbyteries and synods, and 50 percent is used by the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program.

The 219th General Assembly (2010) adopted the resolution, "Gun Violence, Gospel Values: Mobilizing in Response to God's Call." This approach focuses on preventing illegal guns from getting into the wrong hands.

OPC celebrates our local Peacemakers who have been involved for over 25 years. They are Dorothea Murray, Nancy Andress and Vivian Brown.

Our Gift Shop will be opening on November 6 this year and continuing through December 18.

We will have SALE items.

WALKERS NEEDED

One child dies of hunger-related causes every 5 seconds. In the U.S. 43 million Americans don't have enough to eat.

CROP WALK is a community-wide event sponsored by Church World Service and organized by groups to raise funds to end hunger in our community and around the world. Jim Sumner, Coordinator, and Connie Winchester, Treasurer, are OPC's Representatives in the CROP WALK planning.

CROP WALK is Sunday, October 9th. Registration is 1:00 at Oxford Memorial Park, and the Walk begins at 1:30pm.

Walker/sponsor envelopes will be available from Don MacMillan (8:15 service) and Andrew Atkinson (11:00 service).

Funds will be sent to Church World Service to respond to national and world-wide hunger needs, and 25% will be returned to this community to assist Neighborhood Services Center with local food needs.

Note: This is always a fun family event. There is a short trail and a long trail. JOIN US!!

Christmas in July

The Outreach Committee starts working on Christmas Food Boxes in September. We need volunteers to help organize, pick up cans of food, and commit to help us. Our goal is to provide 160+ Christmas dinners for needy families in the Oxford area. Annually, this is sponsored by Outreach and the Deacons. Consider joining our team! Call Bev Hartgrove or Vivian Brown.

"Least of These"

Please continue to support this mission. In the Church Narthex you will see a basket where canned goods, non-perishable items, cleaning and toiletry supplies may be donated. Neighborhood Services Center is meeting the growing needs of the community.

Current needs are for spaghetti sauce, instant potatoes and pancake mix

So far this year we have collected over 1,500 pounds, with the help of Vacation Bible School classes, who collected over 300 pounds!!!

Jesus said, "Whenever you did this for one of the least of these, my brothers, you did it for me."

Youth Choirs are Making Music Together!

Our youth choirs began rehearsals on September 14. We have a small, but energetic group of children who have begun learning to sing songs and play hand chimes for worship. The children who participate in youth choirs have a variety of experience. The Cherub Choir is made up of children who are in either their first or second year of choir. They are both learning to sing songs and play rhythm instruments. The Choristers and Westminster Choirs also have children with one to two years of experience with singing and playing chimes in choirs all the way up to nine years of choir experience! It is very rewarding to watch the ways that the older choir members help the younger members read their bell music, play at the right time and keep their place in the singing choir music. We are looking forward to October 23, when all youth choirs will sing with our Chancel Choir as we welcome new members. The children in Grades 1-8 will also be playing a hand chime piece at the beginning of the service. We are looking forward to a great year of learning to make music and participate in worship services. We have plenty of room for new members and welcome all who are interested to join us as we make a joyful noise and praise God with our music!

Dear members and friends of Oxford Presbyterian Church,

Redner's
Sav-A-Tape
Ministry

I wanted to write to extend an apology to any of you who may have been offended by anything that was said during the presentation on Rally Day. Donald Billet shared before Rally Day that he had no set agenda and intended to promote no political or theological doctrine. His intent was simply to share his love of nature with the children. It is my understanding that he made comments that were anti-science and used some of his time to promote a rhetoric that we do not uphold or condone at Oxford Presbyterian Church. I have spoken with Mr. Billet, and he is very sorry if he offended anyone and he feels terrible about the situation. It is clear that we do not uphold these beliefs in our congregation.

I hope that out of this misunderstanding an opportunity is generated to discuss different ways of believing and explain why we interpret and apply the Bible in the manner that we do. If anyone would like to discuss this further, Pastor Kerry and I would be happy to sit down and share the PC(USA) beliefs surrounding creation as well as contrast these beliefs with other interpretations.

Thank you, Stephanie

Our Youth Group can get 1% back on your grocery bill by using your Sav-A-Tape Card! If you use a Redner's Grocery Card, they will get 5%. Put them together, and the Youth will get a 6% return on your grocery bill!

Here's how it works: Stop by the Redner's Office and get a Sav-A-Tape Card. This is the same card you can use for gas points. Have the cashier swipe your card when you go to the checkout.

There will be a note "Sav-A-Tape" and a notation "Today's 1% Sav-A-Tape Total $..." near the bottom of the receipt. We must have this to be able to use the tape. Save your receipt and put it in the red box on top of the mailboxes by the office! Every couple of months, we tally up the tapes and turn them in, and Redner's sends us a check! It's that simple! Thank you so much for supporting our youth!

Domestic violence is commonly considered a "push factor" for human trafficking. Due to the increased vulnerability caused by an abusive relationship, victims of domestic violence can find themselves isolated and without access to the financial and emotional support needed to leave to a safe situation, which puts them at high risk for exploitation. Domestic Violence can also be a push factor for those who become traffickers. According to a recent study, 88% of the traffickers interviewed indicated that they had grown up in homes where domestic violence was present.

So this October while we strive to be more aware of domestic violence, we should also be aware of how it can impact our work in the anti-trafficking field and how important it is for all of us to work together to stop these abusive and exploitative crimes from occurring in our communities.

A group in the Presbyterian Church (USA), Presbyterians against Domestic Violence Network (PADVN) welcomes those who promote non-violence in all relationships. They provide advocacy and resources for the prevention of and healing from societal and domestic violence. More information is available on their Web site at <http://gamc.pcusa.org/ministries/phewa/presbyterians-against-domestic-violence/>.

Donegal Presbytery Trip to see

“Rembrandt and The Faces of Jesus”

with Eryn Cox-Holmes, Executive Presbyter
Thursday, October 27, 2011

Join Us! God has given us the arts to feed our souls and fill our imaginations. What better time to gather with Donegal friends to tour this amazing exhibit and talk together about our own visions of the face of Jesus? Please join me for a day together at the wonderful Philadelphia Museum of Art.

The Faces of Jesus. This exhibition reunites the seven “Faces of Jesus” paintings for the first time since 1656. Complemented by more than fifty related paintings, prints, and drawings, Rembrandt and the Face of Jesus allows visitors to consider the religious, historic, and artistic significance of these works. The paintings in this exhibition bear witness to Rembrandt’s iconoclasm and his search for a meditative ideal.

For: Any members of Donegal Presbytery and their friends.

What: We will meet at the Philadelphia Art Museum at 11:15a and tour the collection together, using the free audio tour.

Then: We will gather in the cafeteria, each purchase what food we wish, and discuss the exhibit, and our own images of Jesus together.

Cost: Admission to the Exhibit/Museum is $28.50 for Adults and $26.50 for seniors. Purchase your tickets online at philamuseum.org or by phone.

Register at the Presbytery of Donegal web site: <http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07e4xnzwtwngt1p98c9/start> .
